

XIMENA ECHAGUE

Nací en Buenos Aires, me hice fotógrafa en Europa y ahora vivo entre New York y Bruselas. Mi vida ha influenciado en mi manera de mirar a la gente que me rodea.

Siempre he vivido en grandes ciudades con mucha población que viene y va, lo que me lleva a empatizar con ellos. Todos somos migrantes de diversas maneras, en movimiento, buscando mejorar nuestras circunstancias.

Intento capturar en mi fotografía esta dinámica humana, hecha de esperanzas satisfechas o pérdidas, con su drama y sus contradicciones. La odisea de la vida humana.

He tomado a lo largo de los años decenas de talleres de fotografía documental, fotoperiodismo y fotografía de calle, con agencias, colectivos y escuelas como Magnum Photos, In-Public, Leica Akademie o ICP (International Center of Photography) en New York, Londres, Paris, Bruselas y New Delhi.

Mi fotografía ha sido expuesta en dieciséis países de Europa, América y Asia, incluyendo cuatro exposiciones individuales y 39 colectivas. Ha sido publicada en diversas revistas internacionales como Eyeshot Magazine, Leica Fotografie, L' Oeil de la Photographie, Lens Culture, Life Framer, National Geographic, PH Museum, Inspired Eye, Revista Viva, entre otras.

Mi trabajo ha recibido el Segundo Premio en el Brussels Street Photography Festival 2019, he sido finalista en el Miami Street Photography festival y en Street Foto San Francisco.

Soy Embajadora de Women Street Photographers y Jurado y Mentor en su programa de residencia para artistas (New York), y curadora de Fotógrafas Latinoamericanas LATAM en el marco de sus exposiciones internacionales.

Soy miembro fundador del colectivo internacional Little Box Collective.
